Full job description

DON'T MISS THIS AWESOME OPPORTUNITY TO WORK IN TRAVEL

Love talking travel?

Keen to earn $75k plus?

Want to enjoy the amazing benefits of working for the world's largest travel company?

FCM – the large market, global corporate travel division of the Flight Centre Travel Group is looking for Travel Managers.

FCM Australia is hunting for travel professionals keen to manage the diverse travel needs of blue-chip national and multinational companies. You'll be someone who loves to connect with customers, offer strategic and tactical travel advice, has one eye on the latest travel deals and the other on industry news.

Our ideal candidate will have a minimum of 1-year travel consulting experience, understand what excellent service means for customers, be business and travel industry oriented. You'll like working in a team environment, but also comfortable working autonomously. You're someone who enjoys being part of a company with a serious focus on keeping employees happy, productive and supported.

Do you have experience in ...

- Corporate travel management
- Retail Travel
- Sabre or GDS systems
- multitasking to meet deadlines and customer expectations
- building strong customer and team relationships

The WIIFM (What's in it for me!)

- $75,000* plus super
- Flexible and blended working arrangements, including remote – WFH, office based or a blend of both
- Monday to Friday week, business hours. Weekends are yours
- A company culture that supports responsible travel, diversity, equity and inclusion, empowered giving and conservation of natural resources and sustainability. Yep, our hearts are big, mushy and green!
- Travel discounts including family and friends, health and wellness discounts, financial planning advice
- Excellent career opportunities across our global network of brands. We promote from within
- Dynamic social calendar of awards nights, team building events and opportunities to attend our annual global conference for high performers (being held in Vegas 2022!)
- Individualised learning and development opportunities
- Paid Parental Leave

We make it our priority to keep our people feeling their best — with fun perks, strong benefits, and a real commitment to providing a work/life balance.

We're proud to have created an environment where our people can share their incredible passion for travel and global cultures while making sure every client receives top-notch service and the best experience possible.

Driven by an unconventional mindset, our people are out-of-the-box thinkers, movers and shakers. We are dedicated to making the corporate travel experience for our customers - seriously smooth
